Order thereon:- No. R. 6806-9
L.R. 362-06-6

Dated bBangalore 7 November 190C.

The institution in question was established in 1885 at Chennaroyapatna for teaching sanskrit to poor Brahmin students and was being managed by one Pamasastry. He devoted his time to it free, utilizing the grant of Rs,35/- received from Government and the interest on the fund formed out of the subscriptions raised amounting to nearly Rs.3000/- by the year 1903, in paying the teachers and meeting other expenses of the institution. After his death which took place two years ago, the said institution is managed by one Mr. Mudagere Venkataramiah and a committee consisting of officials and non-officials selected and appointed by the residents of Chennaroyapatna and approved by the Inspector General of Education.

2. The Inspector General of Education recommends that 40 acres of wet land may be granted to the Patasala under reference free or for a low upset price for the benefit
